September 22
 "If you want God to hear your prayers, hear the voice of the poor. If you wish God to anticipate your wants, provide those of the needy without waiting for them to ask you. Especially anticipate the needs of those who are ashamed to beg. To make them ask for alms is to make them buy it."

St. Bruno
October 6

This saint has the honor of having founded a religious order (Carthusians) which, as the saying goes, has never had to be reformed because it was never deformed. No doubt both the founder and the members would reject such high praise, but it is an indication of the saint's intense love of a penitential life in solitude. He supported Pope Gregory VII in his fight against the decadence of the clergy. He dreamed of living in solitude and prayer, and, through a friend, was given some land which was to become famous for his foundation "in the Chartreuse" (from which comes the word Carthusians).
"By your work you show what you love and what you know."

 As we approach the start of another beautiful liturgical year and welcome the Third Edition of the Roman Missal this is a great opportunity to take notice of the richness of our traditions and prayers. The new translation is awesome in conveying many of the great mysteries of our faith.

St. Barbara December 4

Saint Barbara, your courage is much stronger than the forces of hurricanes and the power of lightening. Be always by our side so that we, like you, may face all storms, wars, trials and tribulations with the same fortitude with which you faced yours. O Beautiful Maiden once imprisoned in a high tower, protect us from the lightning and fire that rages in the sky and the discord of war. Keep us alert and protect us from the dangers that surround us. Holy Mary Mother of Jesus intercessor for us all; we pray to assure receiving of the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Eucharist at the hour of our death. Through Jesus Christ Our Lord, Amen

“Stand fast,
 therefore, in this conduct and follow
 the example of the Lord, ‘firm and unchangeable

in faith...loving each other, united in truth,’ helping each other with the mildness of the Lord...”

For whatever reason, I always look forward to Lent...partly because I know about the celebration that awaits us at Easter. But it is also the preparation the is Lent—the chance to take more time to pray and reflect on how I am doing on my faith walk and what I can do to turn away from sin and follow the Gospel.

 March 18

“Our actions have a tongue of their own; they have an eloquence of their own, even when the tongue is silent. For deeds prove the lover more than words.”
 One of the great Doctors of the Church, he helped to defend the Church during the Arian Heresy—Arians refuted that fact that Jesus is True God and True Man—and was around during the council of Nicea...think of the Nicene Creed—we believe in Jesus Christ...truly begotten of the Father...Light from light...true God from true God...

St. Isadore of Seville
April 4

Another one of our great doctors of the church who comes from a family of saints...seriously, his siblings are beloved saints of Spain. As we enter into the great Triduum, let us take to heart the words of St. Isadore on the Sacrament of Reconciliation:
"Confession heals, confession justifies, confession grants pardon of sin. All hope consists in confession. In confession there is a chance for mercy. Believe it firmly. Do not doubt, do not hesitate, never despair of the mercy of God. Hope and have confidence in confession."

St. Matthias
Apostle
May 14

St. Matthias was chosen as the twelfth apostle as a replacement for Judas. The criteria was the replacement had to have been a disciple from the beginning and baptized by John. The apostles cast lots and Matthias was chosen.

Something to think about...
 Have you ever felt like a latecomer? Or have you ever resented someone new who was added to your group? Try to see your community as not complete without the newcomer, whether you or someone else. Welcome any newcomers to your community this week as someone chosen by God.

St. Irenaeus
June 28
 "The glory of God is man fully alive."
 This is one of my favorite quotes. Just think about—even before you were formed in your mother's womb God knew you. Our loving Father desires nothing but ultimate happiness for all of us and we can only find that true joy and happiness by answering His call to holiness.

 As we get ready to start our summer fun, I invite you to take some time to discern how you are doing in walking the path with Christ set by Our Father in heaven.

St. Thomas the Apostle
July 3

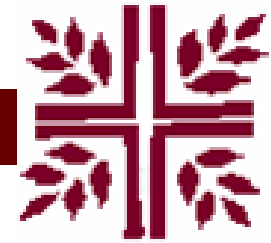

Poor Thomas! He made one remark and has been branded as “Doubting Thomas” ever since.

But if he doubted, he also believed. He made what is certainly the most explicit statement of faith in the New Testament: “My Lord and My God!” (see John 20:24-28) and, in so expressing his faith, gave Christians a prayer that will be said till the end of time. He also occasioned a compliment from Jesus to all later Christians: “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” (John 20:29).

Don't forget, even though it is summer there is still loads to do!!

St. Lawrence
 August 10
 We don't know a whole lot about this saint, but we do know he had a true love of the poor and saw the dignity of every person. He also defended his faith to the death, and kept his sense of humor. As he was being burned on the gridiron he let the guards know that they could turn him over because he was "done on this side."

Summer is coming to a close, so it is time to start getting geared up for fall!
